

DO NOT change the no call protection act. When I sit down at night the last thing I need is someone HARASSING me and waking up my children at bedtime. If these companies can't find some other way to advertise then they shouldn't be in business. Most often the business that call end up ripping of innocent and elderly home owners anyway, WE don't need that kind of business in our communities!!